Syracuse Man Killed In Hamilton County Crash

A man is dead after an accident in Hamilton County Monday afternoon.

The crash happened just before 3:00 p.m. Monday.

According to the Kansas Highway Patrol Crash Log, 42-year-old Richard Farnsworth of Syracuse, Kansas was making a left hand turn onto County Road B when a tractor, which was driving northbound on K-27, struck Farnsworth's driver's side door.

He was taken to Hamilton County Hospital where he later died.

The driver and the passenger of the tractor were not injured in the crash.
