Oklahoma Man Injured After Turning Over Trailer Loaded with Cattle in Haskell County

An Oklahoma man is injured after turning over a truck he was driving Tuesday. Sixty-three year old Robert Reedy of Chandler, Oklahoma received injuries and was taken to Satanta District Hospital after the accident Tuesday morning at about 6:30. He was driving a Peterbuilt Tractor Power Unit pulling a trailer loaded with cattle. The accident occurred about 13 miles northeast of Satanta. The truck was headed west on Haskell County Road 50 until the truck went off the south edge of the road, over corrected and laid the truck over on its side in the ditch. Only one head of cattle was on the road.
