

<http://www.KSCBNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=15053>

Small Plane Crashes, Pilot Injured

The Kansas Highway Patrol is investigating after a small plane went down northwest of Garden City. It happened around 9:15 a.m. Friday, near 19550 North Big Lowe Road. It is three miles south of the Scott-Finney County line. According to the KHP, the crop duster had mechanical issues and lost power upon taking off and crashed in a field. The pilot, 64-year-old John Crist, was taken St. Catherine Hospital in Garden City. He was flown to St. Francis in Wichita.

AP/KSN