Tegan Cunningham -Cowgirls Take Part in Big 12 Media Day

KANSAS CITY, Mo. - Members of the Oklahoma State women's basketball team met with the media on Wednesday afternoon during the annual Big 12 Media Day. This year's event took place at the Sprint Center in downtown Kansas City.

Seniors Tegan Cunningham and Andrea Riley joined head coach Kurt Budke in a series of interviews with print, radio and television outlets. In addition, Riley took part in a roundtable discussion with five members of other Big 12 squads as well as television analyst Debbie Antonelli.

Cunningham started 32 games for OSU last year as a junior and scored in double figures 19 times. Tegan was a two time all-American at SCCC and led the Lady Saints to a 3rd place finish (36-2) in the NJCAA her Freshman year.
