Lady Saints Rebounding Dominance Lifts them to Win Over New Mexico Junior College
Seward had 24 offensive rebounds while New Mexico Junior College had four. The Lady Saints forced 34 Lady Thunderbird turnovers. Those key stats helped Seward remain unbeaten with a 73-60 win over NMJC (6-6) Friday afternoon in Garden City. SCCC head coach Toby Wynn says he's not sure how his team came out on top. "That was a poor effort today on our part," Wynn said. "I really don't feel good about much of any about how our kids played offensively or defensively. We went back to settling for 3's and nobody producing or making 3's. I really don't know how we won the game to be real honest with you." Vaneza Junior and Kendra Spresser scored 12 a piece on a day when offense was tough to come by. Seward hit 38 percent of their shots while NMJC shot 58 percent. Seward hit 4-21 three pointers. Rachel Barnes added 11 points and eight rebounds. Nadia Rosario added 10 points and seven rebounds. Seward plays tenth ranked Western Nebraska at 1:30 PM Saturday on B107.5 and kscbnews.net.
