Icy Road South of Ulysses Kills Two

An icy road is to blame for a crash which killed two Hugoton residents Sunday morning south of Ulysses. Fifty-three year old Tito Medina and 17 year old Crystal Medina lost their lives in the crash on Highway 25 nine miles south of Ulysses shortly after nine Sunday morning. Tito Medina lost control of the Ford Truck he was driving before entering the east ditch and rolling two and a half times. Forty-eight year old Lucile Medina and 25 year old Raul Rodriquez both of Hugoton were injured and taken to the Ulysses hospital. One other passenger was not injured.
