Icy Road Injures Four Near Kismet

Another car lost control on the ice Tuesday afternoon injuring four people near Kismet. Tuesday at about 3 PM, a car was traveling west on Highway 54 before the 17 year old driver Mayela Valenzuela of Liberal lost control on the ice. The car slid across the road and into the south ditch where it struck a tree. Valenzuela and her passengers 22 year old Angel Ruiz of Liberal, 14 year old Yeraldin Valenzuela of Liberal, and one year old Ivan Mora of Liberal were taken to Southwest Medical Center with injuries. The accident occurred a mile and a half southwest of Kismet.
