

<http://www.KSCBNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=1908>

Schools For Fair Funding Re-Open Case Against The State

The Schools for Fair Funding group decided Friday it will go forward with lawsuit against the state.

The group voted in Salina Friday to re-open the Montoy case, which was the original lawsuit that forced lawmakers to spend more money on education to uphold their constitutional requirements to schools.

Dozens of school districts have joined the lawsuit, including Wichita Schools as more cuts have come down from Topeka.

Copyright KSCB News