Finney County Seeks New CVB Director

The executive director of the Finney County Convention and Visitors Bureau has resigned. The bureau's board of directors said it's looking for a new executive director to replace Lynn Schoonover. The board made the announcement Thursday. Board chairman Amro Samy says the board will begin a search for a new director immediately. Samy says the board hopes to have a new executive director in about a month. Events Director Larry Johnson will act as interim director until a new director is hired. Schoonover led the CVB since 2008.
