Seward's Peters Named KJCCC Player of the Week

For the second straight week a Seward County Saint has taken home the Jayhawk Conference Player of the Week honors. This week it was Seward guard Jabari Peters picking up the award after a 62-42 win for the Saints over Dodge City on Saturday night in the Greenhouse. Peters was at the forefront of a suffocating Seward County defensive attack against Dodge City. Peters and the Saints held the Conqs to just 10 first half points and held the league's leading scorer Vic Adams to 13 points under his season average. On the offensive end the sophomore scored a game high 13 points and also pulled down 7 rebounds in the Saints 62-42 win.
