

Saints Trio Makes All Region Team

Three of the sophomore members of the Seward County Saints squad that led them to their third straight Jayhawk West Championship in 2013 were honored by the NJCAA on Monday as it was announced by league officials that Kaheem Ransom, Edson Avila, and Jabari Peters were all named to the All-Region VI team.

Ransom was third in the voting for Region VI Player of the Year and was a unanimous pick of the 1st Team by the league's coaches. The sophomore guard led the Saints in scoring at 16.5 points per game this season and was 7th in the region in scoring in 2012-2013. His 75 three pointers made this season were 5th most in Region VI and his .377 shooting percentage from deep was 8th of the 23 schools in the state.

Avila was also a 1st Team selection this season after averaging 11.4 points and 5.8 rebounds per game on the season which were good for 3rd and 2nd on the team respectively. Avila also blocked 32 shots this season which led the Saints and was 9th most in Region VI. His .580 field goal percentage this season was 4th best of qualified players in the Region.

Peters was chosen to the 2nd Team following his only season in green and white. The sophomore from Brooklyn, New York averaged 12.8 points per game for Seward this season which was 2nd best on the squad and his 2.2 steals per game led the Saints and was 2nd most in the Region. Peters shot .750 from the free throw line this season which ranked him 9th in the Region and is the 9th best career free throw percentage in school history.
