Newman Takes Final Game of Series on Goodwell

oodwell, Okla.-The Newman University Jets left the baseball diamond with a 9-1 win against the Oklahoma Panhandle State University Aggies Saturday afternoon in the third game of the series.

The Aggies earned their first Heartland Conference win Friday afternoon against Newman in a decisive 8-1 victory, and then lost the second one 1-0 to set up what fans hoped would an exciting third game. OPSU faced trouble against Anthony Gonzales, Newman's starting pitcher who threw seven innings, scattering three hits and striking out four. In the fifth inning, lead-off Ruben Aguirre sent a ball over the left field fence for a solo Aggie homerun. Freezy Smalls started on the mound for OPSU and was credited with the loss.

Nationally ranked St. Mary's University visits Goodwell for a three-game series April 12-13.
