George Jones To Play Benefit Concert In Greensburg

Country music star George Jones is heading to Greensburg for a benefit concert.

He hopes to raise money toward building the town's historic Twilight Theatre, which was destroyed by the E-F5 tornado in May 2007.

The new theatre will serve as an entertainment facility for the area as well as an auditorium for Greensburg's schools.

The "May Music Mania" concert date is May 1. It will be at the Paul Windle Municipal Airport.
