Woman Arrested For Robbery In Western Kansas

Kristina Lashmet, 29, of Stanton County was arrested Tuesday on a variety of charges related to two Western Kansas robberies.

In the early hours of February 15th, convenience stores in Syracuse and Tribune were robbed nearly an hour apart. The Hamilton County and Greeley County Sheriff's Departments have been working together to find the suspects.

Lashmet is the third person arrested in this case. On March 9th, authorities arrested two Stanton County men -- Grant Shore, 23, and Ryan Swisher, 29 -- on charges of Aggravated Robbery. Their bond was set at $250,000.
