

<http://www.KSCBNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=25931>

Driver Hurt After Car Strikes A Cow

A Texas man is recovering after he struck a cow while driving in western Kansas early this morning. The crash happened shortly before 6 a.m. on US-83, about 8 miles south of Garden City in Finney County.

According to the Kansas Highway Patrol, 25-year-old Ricardo Galvan of San Juan, Texas was northbound in his 1998 Chevrolet Suburban when he hit a cow standing in the middle of the highway.

Galvan was taken to a Garden City hospital for treatment. It's unclear what became of the cow.

AP/KAKE