Bank of America Makes Donation to United Way

Ryan Valencia, Chair of the 2014 Seward County United Way Campaign, accepts a $1,000 check from Karan Richardson, Bank of America, and her staff. Valencia said, "We really appreciate the support that Bank of America and its Foundation has shown through the years. They've been a great corporate partner with us and have given generously to the United Way as well as many of its agencies." The Seward County United Way supports 27 local non-profit agencies and will kick off its 2014 campaign on Sept. 6. "Early giving like this gives us a great start for our campaign so we want to thank Bank of America for being our first corporate donor to the new campaign," he said.
