Stevens Hits for Cycle in Bee Jay Win

Seth Stevens hit for the cycle as the Liberal Bee Jays capped off their home season with a 7-0 win over the Denver Red Birds Wednesday night at Brent Gould Field.

The Bee Jays also saw their new pitcher lefty Seth Davis who pitched in the North Woods this year and then joined the Red Birds. He will pitch for the BJ's at the NBC.

The Bee Jays finish the regular season 24-17 and 17-7 at Brent Gould Field.

The Bee Jays face the 35-6 WBL champion San Diego Force. The two programs met during the BJ 2010 championship run. Liberal won 9-7 as Blake Bergeron hit a homer and the BJ's scored five in the seventh to rally for the win.
