

<http://www.KSCBNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=26499>

Third Victim Comes Forward In Chiropractor Case

A third victim has come forward in regards to the case with Dr. James McCullom, Guymon chiropractor.

McCullom was arrested last week for two counts of alleged sexual battery after one of his patients came forward and told the Guymon Police Department about his alleged inappropriate actions.

This makes a total of three women to come forward to the Guymon PD about these actions that have allegedly taken place during appointments with McCullom.

Guymon Daily Herald/Trudy Hart