LHS Spring Band Concert Set for Thursday Night

The Liberal High School Instrumental Music Department will be presenting their Spring Band Concert this Thursday, April 2nd, at 8pm in the James Maskus Auditorium. Featured on the program are the LHS Jazzmen who will be performing Rock, Swing and Latin Music.

The Liberal High School Symphonic Band will close the concert with a march, a hymn, a tribute to Frank Sinatra, and a very fast and lively Sabre Dance. The Drum Line is also performing and has a surprise or two in store for the audience. The general public is cordially invited to attend this free concert, which is directed by Lance Burnett.
