Spring Production Comes To Hugoton

Southwest Friends of the Arts of Hugoton, Kansas has its spring production in the works. The hilarious melodrama “Wynn Fairly, Champeen Rasser” or “Get a Grip on Yourself” directed by Janice Hollis, is fast moving, and full of action! It has a large cast with many new players as well as some of our seasoned regulars.

Our performances will be at Memorial Hall at the Stevens County Courthouse, 200 E. 6th Street in Hugoton, KS on Friday, April 23, and Saturday, April 24. Doors open at 6:30. Pork loin dinner will be catered by Janice Morgan. Tickets will be available starting on Friday, April 9th. State Farm, 544-8528 and Common Grounds, 544-8383 will be serving as box offices. Get your tickets early, seating will be limited.
