Sublette Woman Crashes into Snow Bank

A Sublette woman received possible injuries yesterday after a crash 3.5 miles west of Satanta in Haskell County. The wreck occurred at about 8:23 yesterday morning. Forty-two year old Michelle Lumley of Sublette was driving a 2006 GMC Yukon west on Highway 56. The vehicle drifted off the road and into a culvert where the vehicle crashed into a snow bank. Lumley was taken to Satanta District Hospital with a possible injury.
