Seward Surges Past Colby

Seward's bats remained silent the first five innings Wednesday as Seward and Colby were locked in a scoreless tie. But Seward scored six in the bottom of the sixth to win game one 6-0 and took game two 9-1. Erin Roufousse and Sydney Cicchetti pitched Seward to wins as SCCC improves to 40-10 overall and a conference leading 10-2. In game one, Roufousse allowed just one hit. Brianna Baron's three RBI triple in the sixth gave Seward a 3-0 lead. Alicia Reyes and Lynda Musick began that rally with base hits. They had two hits a piece. In game two, Cicchetti allowed two hits. KJCCC player of the week Marisa Coats went 4-4 with four RBI's. Reyes was 3-4 while Shelby Casey and Kelsea Blackstock had two hits a piece. Colby falls to 6-8 in the Jayhawk West and 24-18 overall. Seward travels to second place Butler Friday for a 2 PM game.
