Seward Assistant's Stock Rises to NCAA Division Two

Seward assistant men's basketball coach Ryan Stock will be an assistant for a Division II school. The name of the school has not been released yet to due to finalizing everything with his new school. Stock assisted Bryan Zollinger three years at Seward. The Saints best year was their first when SCCC won the Jayhawk West and Region 6 titles before placing third at the NJCAA Tournament. The Saints were 24-9 this year and 23-9 last year. Stock was an assistant at Eastern Arizona before accepting the Seward assistant job.
