Team Anthony Crump Reports Progress

Anthony has been cleared to walk without being held onto. Yay!!! He has to have an adult beside him. He is still a little unbalanced and trips over that right foot at times but his reflexes are getting better. He continues to have right leg issues and the left ankle rolls out but he IS WALKING!!!!!! Didn't take a year or two either! Between God's healing power and Anthony's hard work, faith, and determination he is walking!!! He had a great birthday! You all are so awesome! He gets so many cards daily and he loves going up to get the mail and reading all the cards and tearing into the packages. To all of you, you know who you are, THANK YOU SOOOOOOOO MUCH! You have made this the best birthday ever. Anthony said that he felt like this was the best birthday ever and that this next year will be his best year ever!!!! Wow! He is getting a haircut this weekend! Praise God! We will post a picture for you! Love you all!
