20 Year Old Killed In Crash In Gray County

A 20-year-old Dodge City man was killed early Saturday morning in a crash in southwest Kansas.

It happened around 4 a.m. on County Road M, about two and a half miles east of K-23 in Gray County. The Kansas Highway Patrol said Taylor Flaherty was heading east on the county road when his Chevy pickup veered left of the centerline and entered the north ditch. The truck then went back across the road to the south ditch and rolled, coming to rest on its top.

Flaherty was taken to an area hospital where he was later pronounced dead. Reports state he was not wearing a seatbelt.
