

<http://www.KSCBNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=3123>

Hooker OK Man Arrested On Sex Charges

A Hooker resident is behind bars after allegedly committing rape by instrumentation and lewd molestation.

According to a report in the Guymon Daily Herald, Glen R. Kingsland, 45, of Hooker, was taken into custody earlier this month on a felony bogus check charge and later apprehended by the Hooker Police Department for allegedly sexually abusing two female juveniles.

Kingsland was released on a $50,000 bond. He is being charged with two felonies -- Rape in the First Degree by Instrumentation and Lewd Molestation. If convicted, Kingsland could face prison time of not less than five years to no more than life without parole.

Copyright Guymon Daily Herald