Lady Skins Find Themselves Despite Loss

Liberal was more competitive against maybe the most talented team they will play this season. Liberal lost to Bartlesville 62-43 but may have found themselves in the process. Megan Beseker found the range from the three point line hitting five three pointers and scoring 15 while Jada Mickens scored 11 and finished with a double digit rebounding game. Jai Chapman scored 10 and coach Bill Baird says she had taken a stronger leadership role with the team.

The Lady Bruins (2-1) led 19-14 after one quarter and led 39-20 at halftime.

LHS committed 24 turnovers as they fall to 0-4 and host Perryton Friday night at 6 on 1270 and kscbnews.net.
