

<http://www.KSCBNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=31578>

Aggies Drop Two in Abilene Aggie Basketball Drops Two in Abilene

By Justine Gaskamp on 12/22/2013

Abilene, Texas-The Oklahoma Panhandle State University basketball teams each took 14-point losses to McMurry University on Saturday, Dec. 21 in Abilene, Texas; the Aggie women fell 67-53 and the men fell 96-82.

The Aggie women went into halftime with a three-point lead over the War Hawks, but McMurry gained control three minutes into the second half and held the lead for the remainder of the game.

Hannah Tatum and Sarah Johnson led the Aggies in scoring with 12 and 10 points respectively. The team tallied 39 rebounds with Sharice Papaleo contributing 11 and Rosa Quinonez adding seven. The Aggies' record falls to 0-12 overall; the women will seek their first conference win in January when they take on Newman University on Jan. 4 in Wichita, Kan.

The men got off to a good start as well and controlled the lead for the first four minutes of play; McMurry turned up the heat and went into the locker room with a 15-point lead at the half. The Aggies worked their way down to a four-point deficit in the second half but were unable to attain the lead, giving the War Hawks their second Heartland win.

Five Aggie men scored in double-digits with Jeremy Newton leading the pack once again. Newton totaled 26 points, Jake Regier scored 15, Z. Jones had 12, and Bill Lee and T.J. Farrell each brought in 10 points for the Aggies. Lee notched another double-double grabbing 12 rebounds. The men's record drops to 0-10 overall and they will join the women in Wichita on January 4 for a conference match-up against Newman.

Happy holidays to all our Aggie fans and best wishes for a healthy and happy New Year!

OPSU