Liberal's Moreno Nominated for Catchy Award

A Liberal High School soccer player has a chance to be the most popular soccer player in the state.

CatchItKansas.com has launched its Third Annual Catchy awards. The Catchy Awards are a fans/viewer's choice awards to honor the athletes in the CatchItKansas.com Area from the last year.

Liberal's Eduardo Moreno has been nominated as Male Soccer Player of the Year. Moreno scored 22 goals and dished eight assists for a Liberal team who placed third in the state last fall. Dodge City's Victor Millan, Rose Hill's, Josh Aubuchon, and Berean Academy's Lonnie Penner are also up for the award.

Stanton County's Eric Ruth is nominated for male cross country runner of the year.

To vote go to CatchItKansas.com and click "The Catchy's" Banner near the top of the page. Voting will run from today through July 31. Last year more than 3,000 votes were cast in the Catchy's.
