Hays Struts their Stuff in Blowout Win Over Skins

Hays showed why they are the third ranked team in 5A and favorite to win the Western Athletic Conference. An early alley oop dunk to Hays' 6'7" Brady Werth was a sign of things and come in a Hays 78-49 trouncing of LHS. The Redskins trailed 21-14 after one quarter and 39-17 at halftime. It was 64-26 Hays after three quarters. The Skins struggled at the free throw line in front of a packed house going 7-23 at the free throw line including 5-18 in the first half. Britton Abbott had 14 in the loss. The Redskins are 2-5 and have lost four consecutive games against Hays while the #3 Indians are 7-0. Liberal plays at 5-3 Garden City Tuesday night at about 7:45 on 1270 and kscbnews.net.
