People Invited to Line-Up on 15th Street Sunday to Honor Plunk

A grassroots effort on behalf of people in the area are organizing and inviting everyone to line up on 15th Street in Liberal on Sunday between 3- 4 p.m. to honor Spc Jared Plunk who died in Afghanistan on June 25. Plunk's funeral is Sunday at 2 p.m. in Turpin, Oklahoma, at the Turpin High School Auditorium, and he will be buried in Liberal following the service. The funeral procession is set to go down 15th street in Liberal on Sunday between 3-4 p.m., which is where organizers would like to gather as many citizens as possible to honor the fallen soldier.

The family is also receiving visitors at 2530 Lilac in Liberal.
