

<http://www.KSCBNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=3361>

Generals in Charge in Liberal's Last Non League Game

So much for an undefeated non league season. In Liberal's final non league game of the regular season, the Junction City Generals (15-14) took down the BJ's 7-2 Friday night in Junction City. Liberal goes 10-1 in non league games. Liberal had five hits while the Generals hit a pair of two run homers. Liberal used Austin Robson, Tyler Rockafellow, Hernan Ramos, and coach Matt Quint. Quint, the former BJ and Garden City native pitched a scoreless inning of relief. The Bee Jays fall to 28-12. They travel to El Dorado to face the Broncos Saturday, Sunday, and Monday nights on Talkradio 1270.

Copyright KSCB News