

<http://www.KSCBNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=3413>

Kan. Advance Voting Closed Today at Noon

The clock is ticking for Kansas voters who want to cast their ballots in advance of Tuesday's primary election.

Voters had until noon today to vote in advance in person at their county election site. After that, they will have to wait until the polls open Tuesday morning to make their choices.

Primary voters will choose nominees for statewide, legislative and congressional offices for November's general elections.

Copyright AP