Carl Holmes and Sally Cauble of Liberal Advance Unopposed

Liberal residents Carl Holmes and Sally Cauble both won their respective Republican primaries for State Representative, and State Board of Education. They were both unopposed, and will not face any opposition in the general election in November.

Other unopposed candidates included Kim Schroeder and Bradley Ambrosier who are both District Court Judges. Neither have competition in November.

Incumbent State Treasurer Democrat Dennis McKinney and Republican Ron Estes will face off in November after both advanced unopposed.
