Near Traffic Disaster in Grant County

A Ulysses man received possible injuries, but it could have been much worse Wednesday evening. Twenty-nine year old Kent Koehn of Ulysses was taken to Bob Wilson Memorial Hospital in Ulysses with possible injuries after the car he was driving pulled out of a driveway and was side swiped on Highway 160, 12 miles east of Ulysses. A 2004 truck was headed east on Highway 160 in Grant County. Koehn was leaving a private driveway and stopped to make a left turn. The truck took evasive action and side swiped Koehn's car. There were four passengers but they all avoided injuries. The mishap occurred at about 7 p.m. Wednesday night 12 miles east of Ulysses.
