Bowlopolis a Blast

The Bowlopolis Blastoff brought hundreds of kids to Ayr Lanes Saturday. Kids were able to bowl for free and receive free drinks, free food, door prizes, and free goody bags. Kids who then signed up for the youth bowling program receive a free uniform, free practice, free coaching and instruction, three parties, awards, tournaments, and a lifetime sport. The Liberal Fire Department displayed how they cut through a vehicle to get someone out and they propelled down the side of the Ayr Lanes building. The Liberal Police Department demonstrated how "Rex" the K-9 helps the department and exhibited their SWAT team.
