Crash in Front of Satanta Post Office Injures Two

A vehicle hit two cars and a pedestrian yesterday evening in front of the Satanta Post Office. The incident occurred shortly after 6 pm yesterday evening in Satanta. Fifty year old Connie Holsted of Garden City drove a 2004 Ford passenger car south on Sequoyah Street and hit a parked car that in turn struck a pedestrian. The vehicle continued south before stopping. After stopping, the vehicle backed into a second vehicle. The pedestrian was 58 year old Irma Salazar of Satanta. She and the driver Holsted were both taken to Satanta District Hospital with injuries.
