

<http://www.KSCBNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=438>

Seward and Pratt will Make Up Games After All

KJCCC Commissioner Bryce Roderick is forcing teams to play make-up games even if they have no bearing on the conference standings. Seward and Pratt fall in that category and will play Tuesday at Brent Gould Field to wrap up their regular season schedule. The two teams split Saturday with SCCC winning 11-1 and PCC winning 4-1. Regardless of Tuesday's outcome, the Saints will finish in sixth place in the Jayhawk West standings while the Beavers won't make the Region 6 first round. The internet only broadcast will be available on kscb.net at 12:50 Tuesday.

Copyright KSCB News