Lady Saints Closer to Consistent

Seward started stongly and finished the same way Thursday night in a 77-56 win at the Pratt Beaver Dome. The Lady Saints (17-9, 7-5) led 42-28 at halftime and led throughout the second half. Toby Wynn says his team is starting to understand offense. "I was proud of our kids the way they got off to a good start," Wynn said. "We continued it and out scored them in the second half (35-28). The other night at Colby that didn't happen. We're doing a better job of moving the ball and getting better shots."

Ashlynn Knoll scored 22 points and grabbed nine rebounds with four steals and four steals giving her over 20 points for the third time in four games. Mariah Lee scored 14 while Autumn Miller scored 13 with four assists and Hannah Rotola scored 11 and dished five assists. Seward continues their dominance over Pratt and hasn't lost to the Lady Beavers since 1990. Pratt falls to 12-13 overall adn 2-9 in the Jayhawk West. Seward plays the team in front of them in the Jayhawk West Cloud County Saturday night at 6 p.m. for Homecoming. Seward will raise money for Breast Cancer Awareness. The game airs on B107.5 and kscbnews.net.
