All WAC Bowling

The Liberal Redskin bowling team had four individuals earn their way on to the ALL WAC Teams for the 2011 season. Kylie Jennings lead the Redskins girls with a 177.4 average getting her a spot on FIRST TEAM ALL WAC. Her average was 5th high among all girls in the conference. Erica Fowler also earned FIRST TEAM recognition with her 176.7 average for 6th high in the conference. Kimberly Vanley rounded out the girls selection by being named to the SECOND TEAM ALL WAC in 12th spot with her 167.4 average. Jared Hall was the only boy to make any of the two ALL WAC TEAMS. Jared finished the WAC season with a 201.78 average which was 8th high in the league earning him on SECOND TEAM ALL WAC for 2011.

Both teams will travel to Wichita next Friday to compete at REGIONALS. In order to earn a spot at STATE, the bowling teams will have to finish 1st or 2nd at their 11 team Regional.
