Jones Picks Purple

Wearing a K-State hat when he entered the All American Room at SCCC/ATS, Jeremy Jones left no suspense to his signing ceremony. Seward County Saints Jeremy Jones signed a national letter of intent to play basketball next year for Frank Martin at Kansas State in Manhattan. Jones made the announcement during a ceremony in the All-American Room at SCCC Wednesday afternoon. Jones led Seward to the Jayhawk West Championship and a runner up finish in the Region this past year. Dozens of major universities courted the guard from Chicago before he narrowed it down to two earlier this week. Houston was the other finalist.

An complete interview with Jones can be heard tommorrow morning on 'The Sportsguys' between 7:37 and 9 am on 1270 KSCB AM.
