Over 240 Students Graduate Sunday from Liberal High School

The Liberal High School Class of 2009 graduated Sunday in a jam packed LHS Gym. The class of 2009 was one of the largest in recent memory according to LHS Principal Keith Adams. Over 240 students graduated from the class.

The keynote speakers were Salutatorian Tyler Suthlerland and Valedictorian Kimberly Fuller.

'That Liberal Band' performed the Prelude, Processional, and the fight song. The Redskin Singers performed the song "100 Years." The invocation was done by Senior Class President Jasmin Zeledon, while the Benediction was given by Vice President Hannah Rotolo. School Board President Dan Diepenbrock confirmed the Class of 2009. Many of the graduates responded by the customary tossing of the hats.

The class of 2009 throughout the nation is the largest in history.
