Hugoton Woman Loses Life in Haskell County Crash

A Hugoton woman lost her life when her car went left of center and struck a Mack Truck Tuesday afternoon in Haskell County. Seventy-four year old Constance Senseman of Hugoton passed away after the crash which occurred at about 1:30 pm Tuesday one mile west of Satanta. Senseman was driving a 2008 Toyota Passenger Car east on Highway 56 while a Mack Truck was westbound. Senseman's car went left of center and struck the truck on the front driver's side. The truck driver 48 year old Brad Evan McCampbell of Fowler was injured and taken to Satanta District Hospital.
