

<http://www.KSCBNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=740>

Kansas Wesleyan Has Hired An Interim President

Kansas Wesleyan University has hired an interim president. Dr. Craig Willis will begin his duties on July 1st.

Willis most recently worked as interim president of Eastern Michigan University. Willis will serve until the Board of Trustees finds a permanent replacement for Dr. Phillip Kerstetter.

Kerstetter served as president for seven years and is off to start his new job as president of Mount Olive College in North Carolina.

Copyright KSCB News