

<http://www.KSCBNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=808>

Bee Jays Cruise in Win Over Colorado

The Liberal Bee Jays were dominating in a 15-1 victory over the Colorado Bombers Thursday at Brent Gould Field.

Matt Hauser earned the win for Liberal from the mound pitching seven innings and giving up just one unearned run. Brett Davis came in to pitch two scoreless innings in relief.

The Bee Jays got off to a quick start scoring five runs in the first. They added a run in the third and fourth, followed by two runs in the fifth, three in the seventh, and three in the eighth.

The Bee Jays improve to 10-10 overall on the season. They remain at 7-8 in the Jayhawk League as it was a non-league game.

The Bee Jays will host the Bombers again tonight at 7 p.m. The AppleHutch will be the buyout sponsor. They will be giving away cash prizes.

Copyright KSCB News