

<http://www.KSCBNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=810>

Holcomb To Erect Memorial To The Clutter Family - A location has been picked for a memorial to honor the family of four whose 1959 killing in rural southwest Kansas was chronicled in Truman Capote's novel "In Cold Blood." The Holcomb City Council agreed Wednesday that the memorial should be located at the Holcomb Community Park. But there was some disagreement during the meeting about where in the park it should be built.

The victims of the killing were Herb Clutter; his wife, Bonnie; and their children, 15-year-old Kenyon and 16-year-old Nancy. They were shot to death at their Holcomb farmhouse.

Construction of the site is expected to start soon. The memorial dedication is planned for Sept. 12, ahead of the 50th anniversary of the killings in November.

Copyright KSCB News