The Liberal City Commission To Try Again

The Liberal City Commission was scheduled to meet last night for their regularly scheduled meeting at 6:30pm at the City Commission Chambers. However, just minutes before the meeting was to officially start, city staff received a phone call that Commissioner Harrison had suddenly taken ill, and Commissioner Carlile was called out of town. Since the Commission did not have a quorum, they were unable to meet. The Liberal City Commission will try again tonight at 6:30 at the City Commission Chambers. The agenda for the meeting will remain the same, and as always these meetings are open to the public.
